

THE HERMITAGE HOTEL

Situated in the heart of Bournemouth's vibrant town centre, the Hermitage Hotel offers modern facilities whilst retaining the elegance and traditional values of a bygone age. With direct access to the lower gardens and glorious beach the hotel is the ideal venue for a holiday, business trip or simply a relaxing short break.

Classic styling and high levels of comfort describe our 77 elegant bedrooms. All rooms are en-suite and equipped with all the facilities today's traveller has come to expect.

A lift is available to all floors and most rooms command spectacular views over the bay to the Isle of Wight.

The hotel offers the finest standard of cuisine and service with a choice of à la carte or table d'hôte in a traditional atmosphere complemented by elegant oak panelling and crystal chandeliers.

In addition to intimate dining we also have the ability to cater for a variety of functions where our attention to detail will make it an event never to be forgotten.

The Hermitage Hotel is privately owned with a hotel management philosophy of quiet sophistication and unmatched service. There is no better example of this than the peace and tranquillity offered by our comfortable lounges.

With on-site parking the Hermitage Hotel enjoys an unrivalled location with the advantage of excellent road, rail and air links. It is also within easy reach of unspoilt countryside, dramatic coastlines and many places of interest.
